23
24 INTRODUCTION

- 25 1. Chris Melingonis ("Plaintiff") brings this class action for damages, injunctive 26 relief, and any other available legal or equitable remedies, resulting from the 27 illegal actions of Network Communications International Corp., d.b.a.
 28 1-800-CALL-4-LESS ("Defendant"), in negligently, knowingly, and/or

1 willfully contacting Plaintiff on Plaintiff's cellular telephone, in violation of the
2 Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 et seq., ("TCPA"), thereby
3 invading Plaintiff's privacy. Plaintiff alleges as follows upon personal
4 knowledge as to himself and his own acts and experiences, and, as to all other
5 matters, upon information and belief, including investigation conducted by his 6 attorneys.

8 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9 2. Jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2) because Plaintiff seeks up to 10 $1,500 in damages for each call in violation of the TCPA, which, when 11 aggregated among a proposed class number in the tens of thousands, exceeds the 12 $5,000,000 threshold for federal court jurisdiction. Further, Plaintiff alleges a 13 national class, which will result in at least one class member belonging to a
14 different state than that of Defendant. Therefore, both elements of diversity
15 jurisdiction under the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005 ("CAFA") are present,
16 and this Court has jurisdiction.

17 3. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Southern District of 18 California.

20 PARTIES

21 4. Plaintiff is, and at all times mentioned herein was, an individual citizen and 22 resident of the State of California, and a resident of the County of San Diego.
23 Plaintiff is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a "person" as defined by 47
24 U.S.C. § 153 (10).

25 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendant is, and at 26 all times mentioned herein was, a corporation whose primary corporate address
27 is in Longview, Texas. Defendant is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a 28 corporation and a "person," as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 153 (10). Plaintiff is

1 informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times relevant Defendant
2 conducted business in the State of California and in the County of San Diego.

3 4 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

5 6. Defendant is in the business of making collect calls to cellular telephones. As 6 part of Defendant's business model, a party contacts Defendant, and states their 7 desire to speak to another party. Defendant then independently places calls to 8 cellular telephones with automated or prerecorded voices, in an attempt to solicit 9 business from the recipient of the call for Defendant's service of connecting the 10 receiving party to the party who initially contacted Defendant.

11 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that on or around May 11,
12 2010, Defendant contacted Plaintiff's cellular telephone, assigned telephone
13 number ***-***-9812, via an "automatic telephone dialing system," as defined
14 by 47 U.S.C. § 227 (a)(1). The telephone number Defendant called was assigned
15 to a cellular telephone service for which Plaintiff incurs a charge for incoming 16 calls pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227 (b)(1).

17 8. During these telephone calls, Defendant used "an artificial or prerecorded voice"
18 as prohibited by 47 U.S.C. § 227 (b)(1)(A). Defendant's prerecorded voice
19 stated that "This is the 800-Call-for-less operator. You have a collect call from 20 [caller's name could not be understood by Plaintiff]. To accept the charges, 21 press 1 now."

22 9. This telephone call constituted a call that was not for emergency purposes as 23 defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227 (b)(1)(A)(i).

24 10. Plaintiff has never provided Defendant with his cellular telephone number,
25 neither orally nor in writing, and Plaintiff did not provide express consent to 26 receive calls on Plaintiff's cellular telephone via an automated dialer.

27 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and therefore alleges that Defendant has takes 28 no measures to obtain prior express consent to make such calls to cellular

17. This suit seeks only damages and injunctive relief for recovery of economic injury on behalf of The Class and it expressly is not intended to request any recovery for personal injury and claims related thereto. Plaintiff reserves the right to expand The Class definitions to seek recovery on behalf of additional persons as warranted as facts are learned in further investigation and discovery.
18. The joinder of The Class members is impractical and the disposition of their claims in the Class action will provide substantial benefits both to the parties and to the court. The Class can be identified through Defendant's records.
19. There is a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented. The questions of law and fact to The Class predominate over questions which may affect individual Class members, including, but not limited to, the following:
- a. Whether, within the four years prior to the filing of this Complaint, Defendant made any call (other than a call made for emergency purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) to a Class member using any automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice to any telephone number assigned to a cellular telephone service.
  - c. Whether Plaintiff and The Class were damaged thereby, and the extent of damages for such violation; and
  - d. Whether Defendant should be enjoined from engaging in such conduct in the future.
20. As a person that received calls using an artificial or prerecorded voice, without Plaintiff's express prior consent, Plaintiff is asserting claims that are typical of The Class. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of The Class in that Plaintiff has no interests antagonistic to any member of The Class.

21. Plaintiff and the members of The Class have all suffered irreparable harm as a result of the Defendant's unlawful and wrongful conduct. Absent a class action, The Class will continue to face the potential for irreparable harm. In addition, these violations of law will be allowed to proceed without remedy and Defendant will likely continue such illegal conduct. Because of the size of the individual Class member's claims, few, if any, The Class' members could afford to seek legal redress for the wrongs complained of herein.
22. Plaintiff has retained counsel experienced in handling class action claims and claims involving consumer actions and violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act.
23. A class action is a superior method for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Class-wide damages are essential to induce Defendant to comply with federal and California law. The interest of Class members in individually controlling the prosecution of separate claims against Defendant is small because the maximum statutory damages in an individual action for violation of privacy are minimal. Management of these claims is likely to present significantly fewer difficulties than those presented in many class claims.
24. Defendant has acted on grounds generally applicable to The Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief and corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the Class as a whole.
